RE:VIVE

Energize your body and mind everyday with Re:Vive Energy Fizz! Re:Vive is a unique, natural supplement that significantly boosts energy, elevates mental focus and supports your health without the unwanted side effects found with most stimulants and drugs. An on-the-go supplement, Re:Vive is an Energy Fizz that you mix with water creating a delicious and exhilarating boost for your day. In addition to the energy boosting ingredients, Re:Vive contains vitamins, minerals, enzymes and natural extracts to enhance mental focus, support the immune system and maintain overall well-being.

ENERTELLIGENCE™ BLEND:

Re:Vive consists of 3 proprietary blends including natural ingredients, antioxidants and enzymes. The EnerTelligence™ blend includes natural sources of caffeine such as Taurine and Guarana seed extract to boost energy. The Proprietary Focus blend supports mental alertness and enhances your mood and the proprietary Cardio-Immunity blend includes ImmuXT for immune system support.

- Taurine is an essential amino acid found in meat, fish and breast milk that provides antioxidant activity and is often used to support mental performance.
- Guarana seed extract is a natural source of caffeine shown to reduce mental and physical fatigue and support athletic performance by decreasing perceived levels of exertion.
- Bacopa monnieri extract may support cognitive function in healthy men and women.
- Ginkgo biloba becomes more effective when combined with the guarana seed extract to support cognitive function in healthy adults.

- Korean ginseng root supports immune function as well as mental focus.
- Quercetin acts as an antioxidant and occurs naturally in red wine, tea, tomatoes, broccoli and berries.
- A daily supply of essential vitamins and minerals prevent the crash associated with other energy supplements.
- Includes ImmuXT, the ingredient in Re:Sist to support a healthy immune system.
